Presenters: Livby Pearson & Claudia Maldonado

Case Scenario #1

Luisa and Pedro are married with three children. Pedro is a DACA recipient, Luisa is currently in the process of applying for her Employment Authorization card, and their three children are U.S citizens. Luisa and Pedro both work and have a combined monthly gross income of $5,300. Luisa and Pedro are interested in applying for their family since their employers currently do not offer health insurance. They meet with a Navigator during Open Enrollment to see what's available.

Case Scenario #1

Who is potentially eligible for Marketplace coverage?

- A. Luisa only
- B. Luisa and Pedro
- C. Everyone
- D. Only the children

Case Scenario #2

Nancy and her husband, Luis, come to your office during Open Enrollment to renew their Marketplace plan. Nancy and her husband state that they will continue to receive a gross amount of $24,000 a year. However, they would like to report that they will not be claiming their 19 year old son because he will be filing his own taxes. In the past years they would claim their son because his income was below the threshold. Once the application was submitted and the changes reported the eligibility letter stated that they were eligible to buy health insurance through the Marketplace. It also stated that they would receive APTC in the amount of $560 a month. Nancy does not understand why they are going to receive less in APTCs if they were reporting two incomes last year.

Case Scenario #2

What can you offer Nancy and Luis if they are not in agreement with their subsidy amount?

- A. Nothing, the determination is final.
- B. Help them submit an appeal through HealthCare.gov.
- C. Print the appeals form, help her complete the form and provide them with the address to mail it.
- D. Tell her to select a plan and then submit an appeal so she doesn't get penalized.

Case Scenario #2

How many days do Nancy and Luis have to submit their appeal?

- A. 45 days
- B. 30 days
- C. 90 days
- D. No time

The Navigator must recommend or provide legal advice to the consumers with respect to the right to appeal.

- A. True
- B. False
